3Ms of Kidmin

The ministry cycle comes at us at rapid speed. Sometimes we can get so focused on prepping for the weekly ministry that we forget to check some of the basic most fundamental components of discipleship. In 3Ms of Kidmin, Mark helps the audience regain focus in a way that can be shared with others. This practical down-to-earth session includes a self-assessment tool that helps leaders understand how to strengthen the discipleship outcomes in their ministry.

3 Habits of Effective Small Group Leaders

Let's face it, not every small group leader is a natural. But just because they may not have a strong natural ability doesn't mean they cannot learn some of the skills that will make them more effective than ever.

Almost Victors

David had something special. But it wasn't his talent with a slingshot, or his connection with King Saul. In "Almost Victors" attendees will find themselves inspired to make a difference.

The Purpose of Excellence

Being Spirit led doesn't mean half-baked ideas and last-minute decisions are the most effective. There is a biblical foundation for striving for excellence. Discover some of the principles found in Scripture and how these principles can help your church ministry have a positive reputation in your community.

Roadblocks to Ministry Beyond Your Capacity

Being Spirit empowered means we should expect to have ministry beyond our capacity. But just because the Holy Spirit wants and can empower us doesn't mean we are experiencing it in our lives. This session helps leaders identify and overcome the roadblocks that fight to keep us doing ministry in the natural sense.

What's your Legacy?

Everyone wants to be remembered for making a difference. When we stop to think about how we want to be remembered we create an opportunity to correct areas where we may have gotten a little off course. Discover practical ways parents and leaders can live their life to influence the next generation.

Personal Growth Plan

When leaders are stagnant in their growth it won't be long until the team begins to become unstable. It is critical for leaders to have intentional growth plans and a strategy to invest in those they are leading. This practical workshop will help leaders set a direction for their own personal growth and their ministry.

The currency of today is Ideas. Ideas are generated when we get creative. And creative ideas can happen anywhere and out of the blue. Learn effective ways to harness and generate creativity even if you feel “creativity challenged.”

Unleashing Creativity

We all face problems in life and in ministry. But problems don't have to stop us in our tracks. By unleashing the power of creativity, leaders can find solutions for problems others may have doubted that could be solved. Learn simple steps to discovering creative solutions and how to lead creative meetings.

Unders of Leadership

Discover some of the most underdeveloped and underutilized traits of leaders. When these traits are put on cruise control teams will begin to struggle to move forward. However, when these traits are addressed by the leader, the team can begin moving ahead with efficiency and accomplishing something great together.

8 Seconds with Influence

It's been said that leadership is Influence. That often translates to the misconception that leaders need to be fully in-charge and the conditions need to be perfect. Learn from individuals in the Scripture who led well even though their surroundings were far less than ideal.

Running on Empty

Time is the great equalizer. How we choose to manage that time makes all the difference. Discover time-tested principles that help people get more done in less time while eliminating the chaos that often fills the mind.
