

Lori and her husband, Darren, served as ministry leaders for over 20 years, including 16 years as children's pastors. In addition, Lori has served on staff at a mega-church as the Director of Assimilation. In this role, she thrived on developing leaders and volunteers leading to ministry growth. She led hundreds of volunteers weekly and enjoyed teaching and training. Lori firmly believes that every believer has been given gifts and talents that are to be used to bless the church through serving. As each person identifies these gifts, actively participates in the life of the church and shares the good news with others – the church will continue to grow!

December of 2018, she became the National Director of Girls Ministries and Children's Discipleship. Her heart is to equip leaders and resource churches to effectively reach girls for Jesus Christ. Lori is passionate about the local church being a key resource in mentoring and discipling girls today and in the future.

Lori and Darren have been married for 20 years and are blessed with two boys: Alex and Tyler. Darren and Lori are both graduates of Central Bible College with degrees in Pastoral Ministries. Lori went on to earn a master's degree from Evangel University in Organizational Leadership.
