Bio for Patti Chapman...

Patti Chapman is the Project Strategist for Children's Ministries at the National Leadership and Resource Center. Patti strives to incorporate her love for learning, concern for people and graceful leadership into everything she does. Her passion is to reach and teach the next generation of leaders to impact this world for the cause of Christ!

Patti has served in multiple capacities mostly in rural southern Illinois for over 30 years. Her responsibilities have included Children's Church Director and Administrator, Puppet Director, Sunday School oversight, bus ministry, Kids in Ministry, Live Out Loud (5th & 6th grade training ministry), Vacation Bible School Director among various other capacities in Children's ministry. She has also served as a Senior Pastor and Youth Pastor.

Although they now live in Springfield, Missouri, Southern Illinois will always be considered home to her, her husband Terry and her 4 children, Ashley, Ryan, Vince and Terra.

Their children and their families serve in various ministries of the church. Patti is a graduate from both Eastern Illinois University with a B.A. in Elementary Education with an emphasis on Middle School Education and Mathematics and from Global University with her License to Preach. She also has her Masters in Organizational Leadership from Evangel University. She has a deep passion to see others raised up in the ministry God has envisioned for them and is willing to take all God has poured into her and pour it into others.

She is available to talk with children's pastors, associate pastors, and senior pastors to answer questions, offer advice or share ideas. She is also available to speak at conferences, camps, and retreats.
