

Kelly Presson is the Assemblies of God National KidMin Director. Previously Kelly served as the National KidMin Director of Leadership Development where he developed and released a digital training platform for children's ministry leaders entitled Hydrate.

www.KidminHydrate.com

Kelly has a long and rich history of involvement in children's ministry birthed in his heart at the age of seven and has a passion to help children's ministry leaders be more intentional and spiritually effective. Kelly is gifted in methods of preparing children to be Spirit-filled leaders among their friends and in their communities. Hundreds of children, through his unique course have become "Special Forces" servant leaders in their church body and beyond.

Kelly continues to build upon his reputation as a mentor for Kidmin leaders, a kid's camp evangelist, school assembly presenter and high energy performer.